The Pirates then took a walk over Marcus and Cassel 42-0 and both respectably.

In the Homecoming game the Pirates won a very tough Maple Valley game 14-7. Then Homer and Kingsley with equal conference records of 5-0 met with our Back Pirates getting a decisive victory of 2-13 that gave them the undisputed title of the Maple Valley Conference.

The Pirates closed their season by winning over Merville, 43-0.

The Pirates captured their opponents 240-0 and put players on the All-Conference team. They were Dan Schmitt, Dennis Fritz, Harold Freese, Joe Clausen, and Mike Brosamle. Those getting honorable mention were Brian Bruning, Dale Schmitt, Loren Clausen, Don Hungerford and Dave Iye.

Skip Day

At 7:00 a. m. on Wednesday, May 17, thirty seniors left for Omaha by chartered bus. When they reached their destination, their first stop was the Union Pacific Museum.

Next the seniors visited the Air Force Radar Station. They were allowed to experiment with the expensive radar equipment and write on the large transparent radar screen.

After lunch at the Brandeis Restaurant in the new shopping center, The Crossroads, the 1961 Class went to Boys' Town. The guided tour proved interesting and educational.

After a couple hours of free time shopping, the seniors proceeded to Sioux City where they dined at the Biltmore. They returned home with many happy memories of the day.

"Here Come The Brides"

"When a man marries his troubles begin," an old saying once stated. What then will happen when a completely normal, petulant, normal, young bachelor, Jimmy Look, who needs a wife, is a terrible hurry to prove to Uncle Dan that his family checks for the support of a wife's needs? Well, Uncle Dan and his wife, Peggy, are waiting for the monthly check in person that they can see the new bride Jimmy needs a wife.

Uncle Dan receives a letter saying that Uncle Dan and his wife, Peggy, are waiting for the monthly check in person that they can see the new bride Jimmy needs a wife.

Uncle Dan, who lives with Jimmy, tries to help Jimmy by trying to get him married. He says he is not going to let Jimmy's sister, Jimmy, end up with three little girls of her own, but himself.

The hilarious plot of the Junior play for '60 is based on the events of one hillbilly family, their neighbors, and their cousins

It so happens that the hillbilly family, Belsnickles, have a crop of girls that have been trying to get married to any man. Then in the midst of this ripe time, two "city slickers" because of car trouble are forced to stay at the Belsnickles' for a night. Two of the girls want to marry one of the "city slickers." This causes confusion, a family feud, and events that tickled the funny bone for more than an hour

Homecoming

Court Members: John Kah and Darce Kah; Second Attendants: Judy Leonard and Harold Freese; First Attendants: Sharon Wiese and David Bye; King and Queen: Joe Clausen and Carol Bergmann

On the cool autumn evening of October 13 the annual Homecoming festivities began. The school spirit was high with a variety of settings, costumes, and music of what presented the best yet presented in the history of the school.

At 8:00 p. m. the lights dimmed, and "The Sound of Music" came forth as the curtains opened revealing a beautiful scene of a court. The "Tribute to Hammerstein" opened with the music from "The King and I," including songs such as "Whistle a Happy Tune," "Getting to Know You," and "Shall We Dance?"

Palm trees, ocean waves, and Bali Hai in a lighting of the stage took the school to the South Pacific, where several "sailors" of the school club proclaimed "There's Nothing Like a Girl Like You." The school then presented "The Courtship of Mary Ann" with the song "Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair." Native girls presented the traditional song "Aloha Oe" and "Hawaii Hike."

The next scene was set in New England where a triple quartet had just finished "A Real Nice Clam Bake on the Old Fashioned Massachusetts Way." The school then presented "The Courtship of Mary Ann" with the song "Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair." Native girls presented the traditional song "Aloha Oe" and "Hawaii Hike."

The curtains opened again, after music from the "Flower Song" by the girls' chorus, on an intense prairie scene. The school then presented "The Courtship of Mary Ann" with the song "Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair." Native girls presented the traditional song "Aloha Oe" and "Hawaii Hike."

a "Durrey With a Fringe on Top." "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" followed the Girls' Glee Club as they viewed the new four corners in western attire danced to "Out of My Dreams." The musical closed with the exuberant "Hello, Hello" by the Mixed Chorus.

The crowning of the royalty of 1960 H.H.S. Homecoming was the spectacular climax of the evening. The attendants and king and queen moved through a candlelighted lane of the Mixed Chorus to the music of "Stardust" by the dance band. Mr. Hompland crowned Harold Freese and Judy Leonard as second attendants to the king and queen and Sharon Wiese and David Bye as first attendants. Mr. Christie transformed Joe Clausen into King of the Holstein Homecoming and Carol Bergmann into Queen. The group was serenaded on their thrones by the Holstein High School Band. As they sat the stage the students sang "The Royalty Song."

The next day the high school enjoyed a pep rally at which Coach Hicks addressed the football team and students. The Pirates to a rousing victory of 39-0 over the Mustangs that evening. During the band's half-time show "The Courtship of Mary Ann" was presented.

The homecoming dance was sponsored by the cheerleaders and the band. The smartly decorated party room carried the theme "We Rocked and Rolled Mapleton." The successful party brought the annual festivities to a close for another year.

Junior-Senior Prom

On the lovely spring evening of April 24 the juniors, seniors, faculty, and board members of Holstein High School floated into a creation of Candyland.

They entered through sugary red and white lanes of candy canes. The lounge was surrounded with lime stick candy and was partitioned from the refreshment area by a fence of lollipops. Gingerbread and peppermint candy adorned the refreshment area. The centerpieces were lollipops embedded in angel hair.

Candyland chefs and waitresses—Charles Cipperley, Wayne Freese, Ronnie Sass, Don Vohs, Diane Dexter, Janice Heitmann, Irene Leonard, and Nancy Sette—served crackers and punch to the guests.

In the distance there was the Candyland Express on its way to the "Big Rock Candy Mountain." The glowing mountain was made of strawberry, vanilla, and lime sherbet.

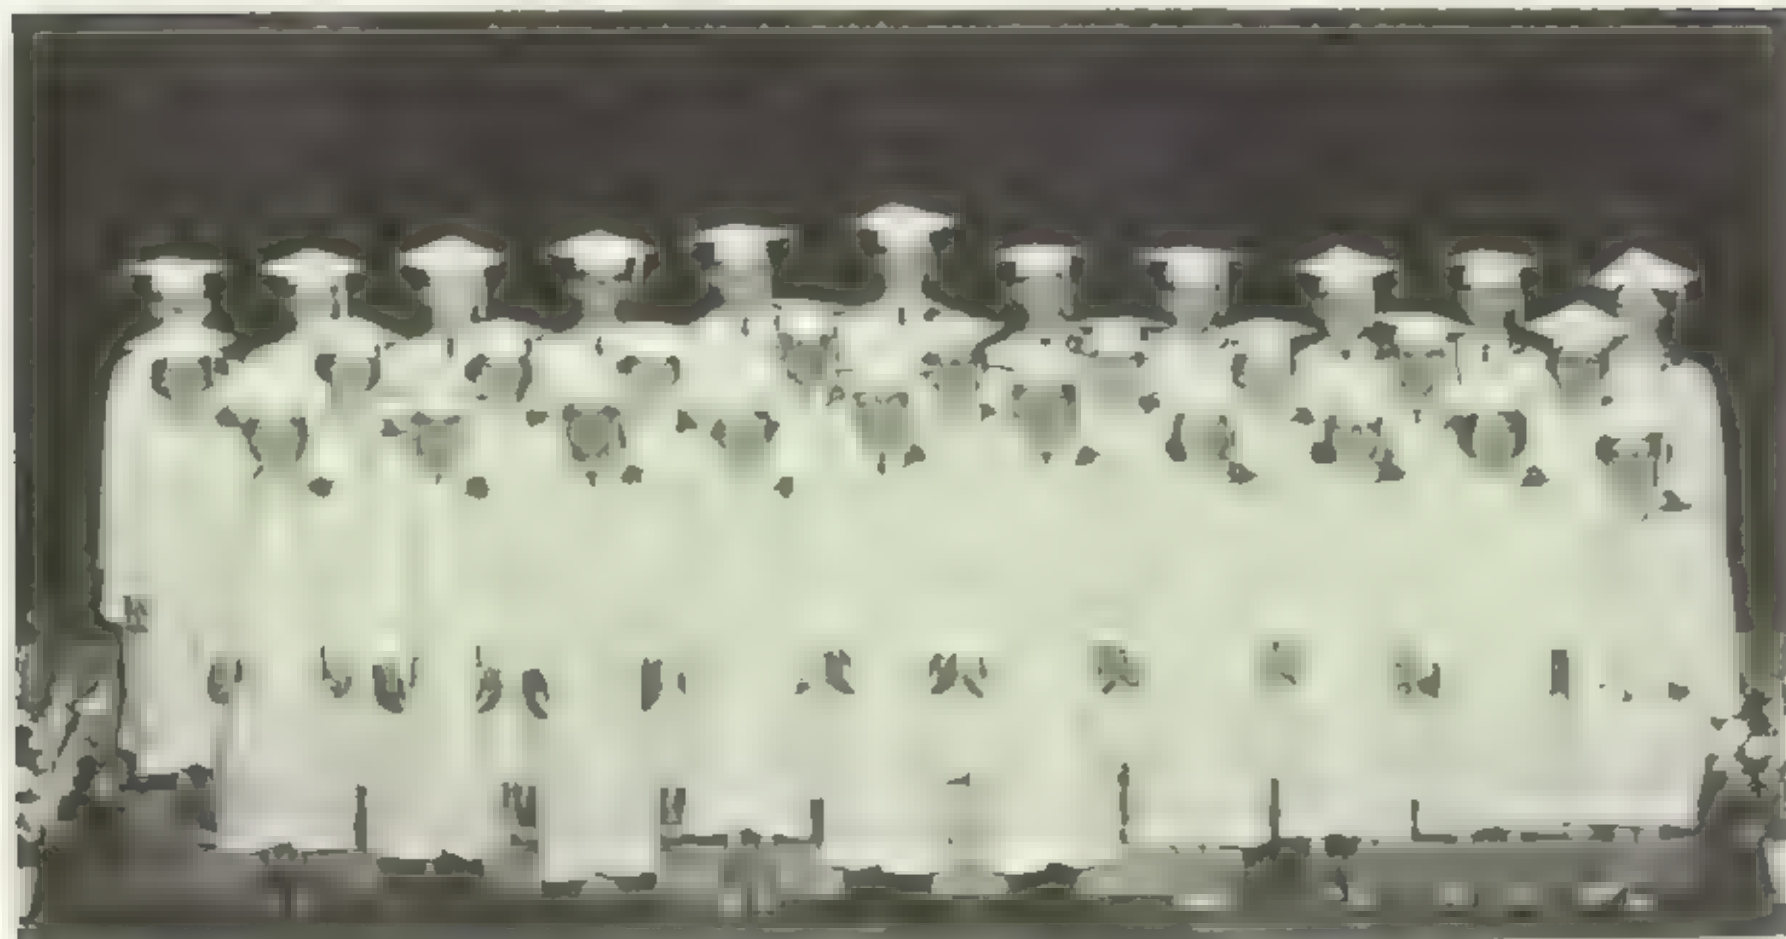

The gingerbread house with frosted windows came into view. Along the path leading to a candy garden were beautiful evergreen trees.

The Candylanders danced to the music of Dwayne Strasheim Quintet.

The climax of the evening was the crowning of Carol Bergmann as queen and Joe Clausen as king by the junior class officers.
